Caring for our Priests

. . . who have so selflessly cared for us.

Priesthood is a life long vocation . . .

Many of our senior priests serve at a parish or make themselves available to multiple parishes in southwest Michigan, providing valuable assistance to pastors who are stretched thin. Some help out by celebrating daily or Sunday liturgies, ministering to the sick and homebound, visiting hospitals and providing spiritual counseling. Others step in when a brother priest is away from his parish for vacation or because of sickness or family obligation.

Almighty Father,
we believe that all good things
come from your hand.

We thank you for the work
that has been done to provide a dwelling
for our brothers who have labored
in your vineyard and for the many people who serve at Clergy Village.
May this time of thanksgiving
remind us of your continual care
for each of us in all things
and keep us united to one another in love.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God forever and ever. Amen.

Your Gift for Our Priests

Caring for the retired priests who have so selflessly cared for us . . .

. . . men whose lives have embodied the very essence of giving, and from whom we have learned firsthand what it means to sacrifice – for they dedicate their own lives, on our behalf, as an offering to God. From our Baptism to our First Communion to our final goodbyes, we have entrusted our souls into their loving hands.

There comes a point when we, as a Church, must care for the priests who have cared for us. As a result of the sacrifices they have so willingly made, priests have limited personal resources and no spouses or children to provide for them as they age.

In a spirit of love, we must care for our senior priests as we would care for our own families - for indeed, they are family. Through your generous gifts, these faithful men can have a comfortable and dignified retirement.
